PUBLISHED BY THE TWENTY-SIXTH SENIOR

THE MERCIAN-1951

CLASS OF MERCY HIGH SCHOOL
Chicago, Illinois

WE HONOR

OUR PRINCIPAL

Sister
Mary of the Angels

R. S. M.

Only from the heights of heaven could come the inspiration that guides her to an alert awareness of our needs and wants. Only from the spirit world could come the gifts of eloquence and of pen that make her, like the angels, a "messenger from God to man."

In wisdom and prudence she passes on to us her love of the good, true, and beautiful by which we may reach our highest destiny, among her beloved angels.

That is why we dedicate to our Principal—————this Mercian of 1951.

IT HAPPENED IN OUR DAY

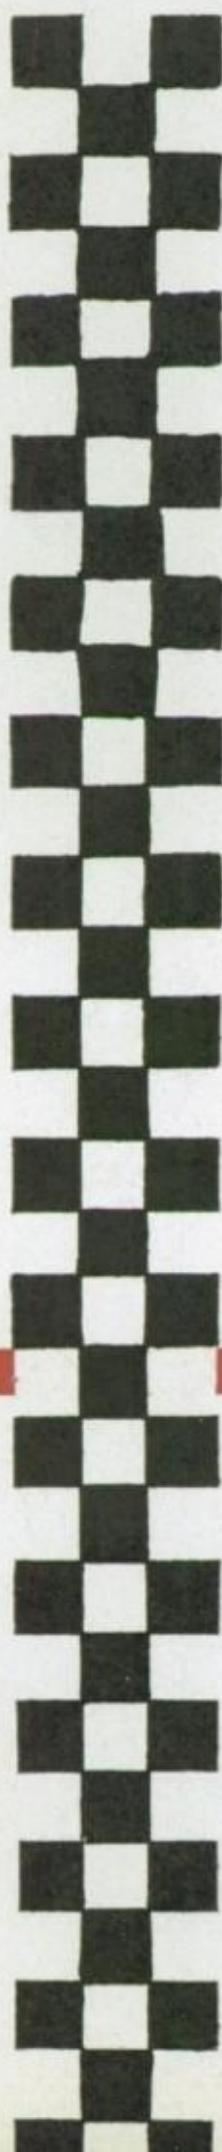

“We pronounce, declare, and define it to be a divinely revealed dogma that the Immaculate Mother of God, ever Virgin Mary, when the course of her earthly life was finished, was taken up body and soul into heavenly glory.”

Pius XII, Munificentissimus Deus

On November 1, 1950, the Vicar of Christ on earth formally and infallibly defined the doctrine of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary into heaven.

IN MEMORIAM

Strange how quickly and quietly death sometimes beckons the soul. Sister Mary Blanche was ill but a few days when God called her to her eternal reward.

After twenty-five years at Mercy High school, Sister left us with dear memories. We remember the scholarly teacher of English, her favorite subject. We see her, as library assistant, among her beloved books. Always a beautiful example of religious life, Sister remains with the thousands she taught and guided, at Mercy and in other schools. She remains with them in memory and in gratitude.

SENIORS

Above—1. Four happy faces peer in at Baby Jesus in the Crib.

Opposite page—1. Barbara lights the Advent wreath. 2. Bethlehem at Mercy. 3. Pat inspects the Madonna. 4. Christmas Party in Senior Room 117. 5. The crib and tree of Senior Room 115. 6. Mercy's gifts to the orphans. 7. "Camera Shy" Sisters and girls at Room 107's party.

Below—1. Seniors showing off their artistic work by introducing the snow family on the campus.

THE DAILY DAY MAKES BRIGHT MINDS BRIGHTER

Opposite Page—

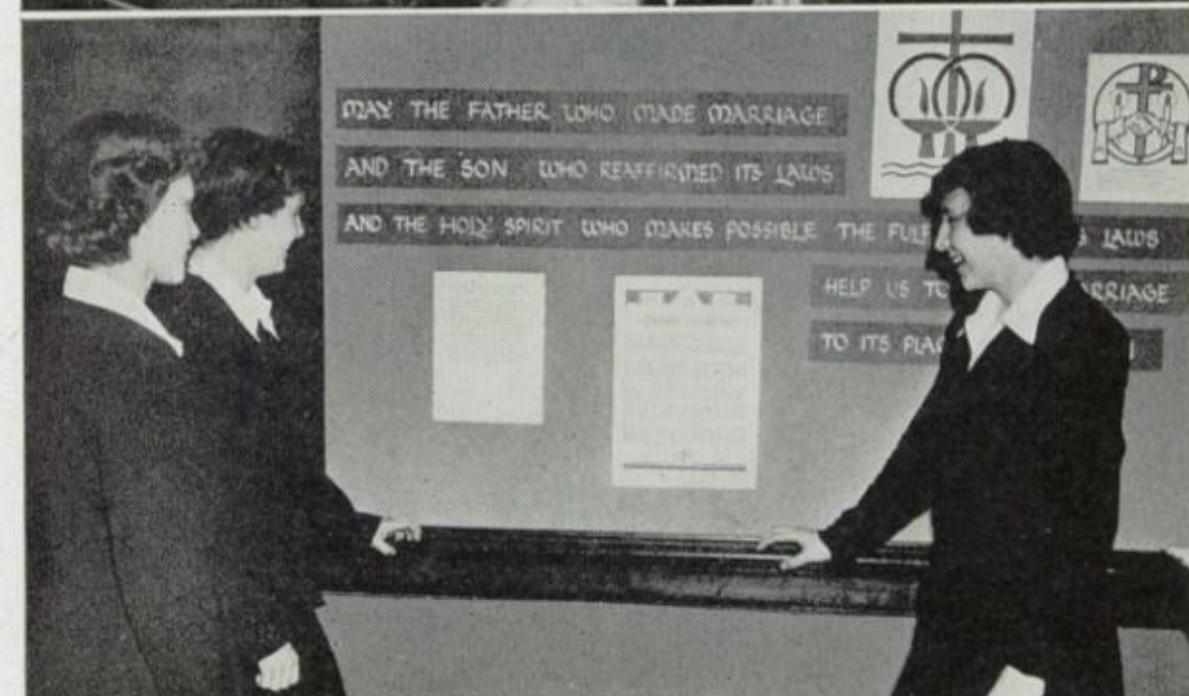

1. Kathy, Helen, and Betty check the temperature.

2. Dody makes a graph during advanced algebra while the others work hard at their places.

3. Anna Mae shows Betty, Violet, and Pat how easy bookkeeping is.

4. Joan demonstrates how centrifugal force can keep the water in the pail without its being spilt.

5. "Albert Einstein, we challenge you . . ." say chem. students of Room 117.

Right—

1. Joan asks a question which seems to amuse the English IV class.

2. Laurie Jean points out the places under discussion in the American history class.

3. "Now, this is my conception of the issue, Mr. Douglas (Marion Jaimeyfield)," debates Mr. Lincoln (Dorothy Southwick).

4. Matrimony, its liturgy, and symbolism make an intriguing study for these girls of Room 114.

1. The most loved room in the school. What would we do without the candy room to maintain our dispositions during the day!

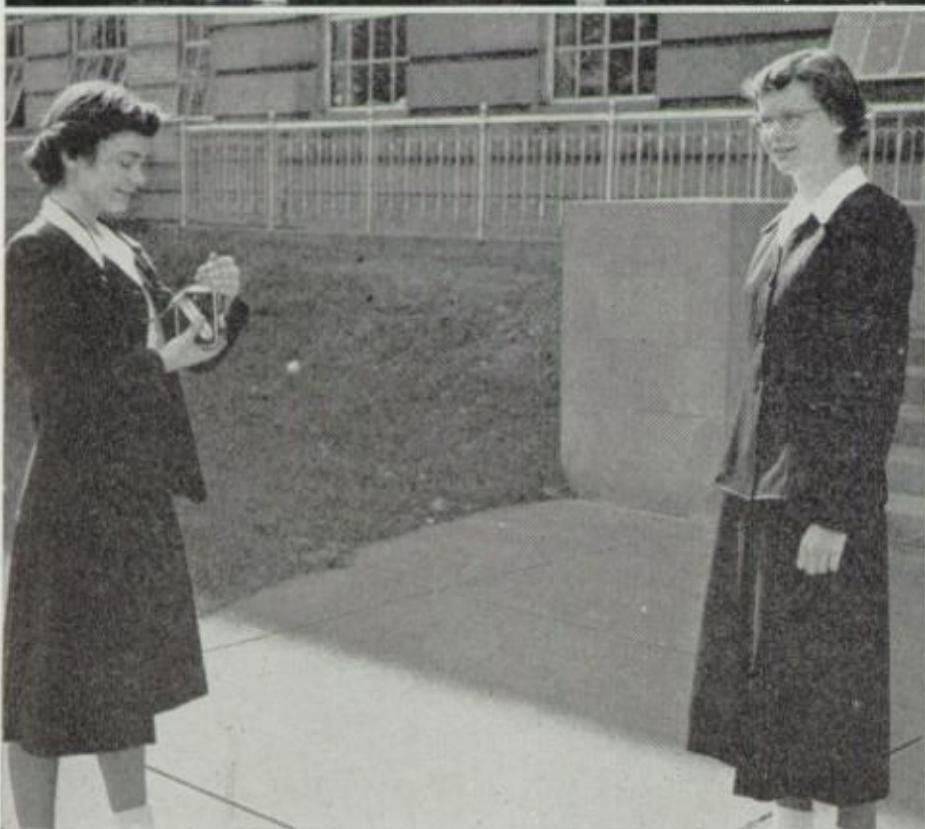

2. "I'm starved!" And don't they look it? The girls wait patiently for their turn in line.

3. Caught in the act of enjoying their school girl selections in food! Mercy girls find it easy to smile for the photographer when "eats" are before them.

Below—"Time off to relax in the Green Room!" Mercy's new booths have proved a popular place to chat and chew.

1. Coca-cola day at Mercy. Girls wait their turn for free cokes. 2. Noon-day recreation. To the tune of the ever favorite juke-box the latest dance steps are displayed. 3. 1-2-3-take count. Lunch time is also coke time. 4. Sing and be merry! It's springtime on Mercy's campus. 5. Bernice Brown brings her "brownie." Charlene obliges with a pose. 6. Arm in arm they jaunt, senior board members together.

ORGANIZATIONS

SURRENDER TO TIME

ALICE RUST
Senior Prefect

SODALITY OF OUR LADY

Each of the four Sodalities of Our Lady functions under its own officers. The numerous activities of the year were planned toward the realization of Sodality aims: to foster in its members an ardent devotion to Our Lady; their own sanctification; and to help in the work of saving and sanctifying other souls.

*Below—*1. SENIOR OFFICERS—Audrey Stech, assistant prefect; Betty Ruffolo, treasurer; Margaret Schwartz, secretary; Mary McDonnell, social chairman; seated, Alice Rust, prefect.

2. JUNIOR SODALITY OFFICERS—Joan Marshall, social chairman; Marie Kratzer, treasurer; Eileen Keeler, secretary; Marilyn Ryan, assistant prefect; seated, Mary Ann Luning, prefect.

3. SOPHOMORE SODALITY OFFICERS—Joyce De Haan, La Vonne Covert, prefect, Eleanor Babyok, Patricia Smith, Patricia Frestel.

4. FRESHMAN SODALITY OFFICERS—Standing, Margaret Farnan, prefect, Marilyn Fitzgerald, Joanne Drinane, Alice Collins, Marlene Culp; seated, Mary Wright, Sheila Sullivan, Catherine Conlan.

Below—

FRESHMAN SODALITY DELEGATES — Sylvia Arrigo, Patricia Brady, Joan Hampton, Carol McFall, Lois La Bash, Janet Knutson, Carol Cooper, Betty Schlosser.

SODALITY RECEPTION

1. "Holy Mary, Virgin Mother of God, I.....choose Thee this day to be my Queen, my Patroness, and my Advocate." Father Doherty invests each candidate with a Sodality medal, and using the ordinary formula, declares each a member of Our Lady's Sodality.
2. "Your names shall now be entered on the roll of the Sodality; may they be written eternally in heaven."
3. The latest editions are here! TODAY'S chairman, Mary Doyle, and chairman for the QUEEN'S WORK, Jeanine Benetier, pass their approval of the current number of each.

NEW WORLD CRUSADE

4. Catholic action in action! The New World crusade is officially opened at a student assembly. At extreme left: Diane Stephenson, chairman.

CISCA COMES TO MERCY

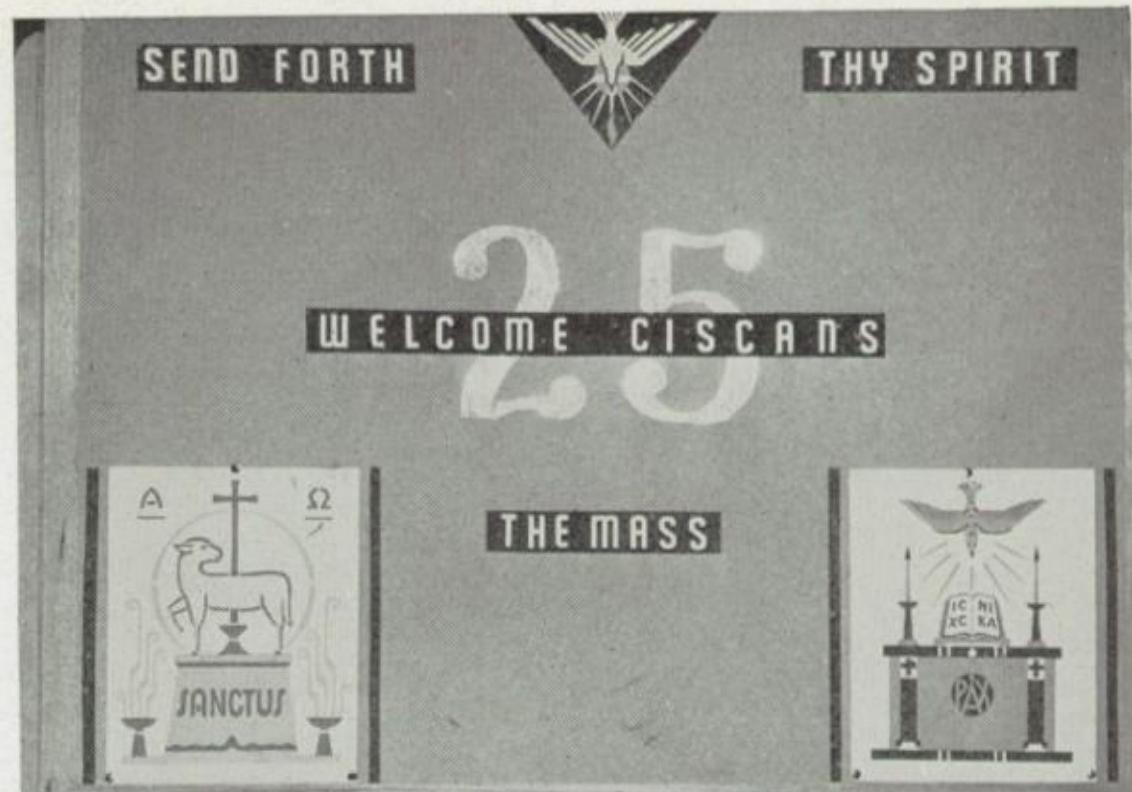

1. Cisca day at Mercy. Our doors are opened to Ciscans from the Chicago area. Mass, lectures, discussions, and Benediction make a full and interesting day.

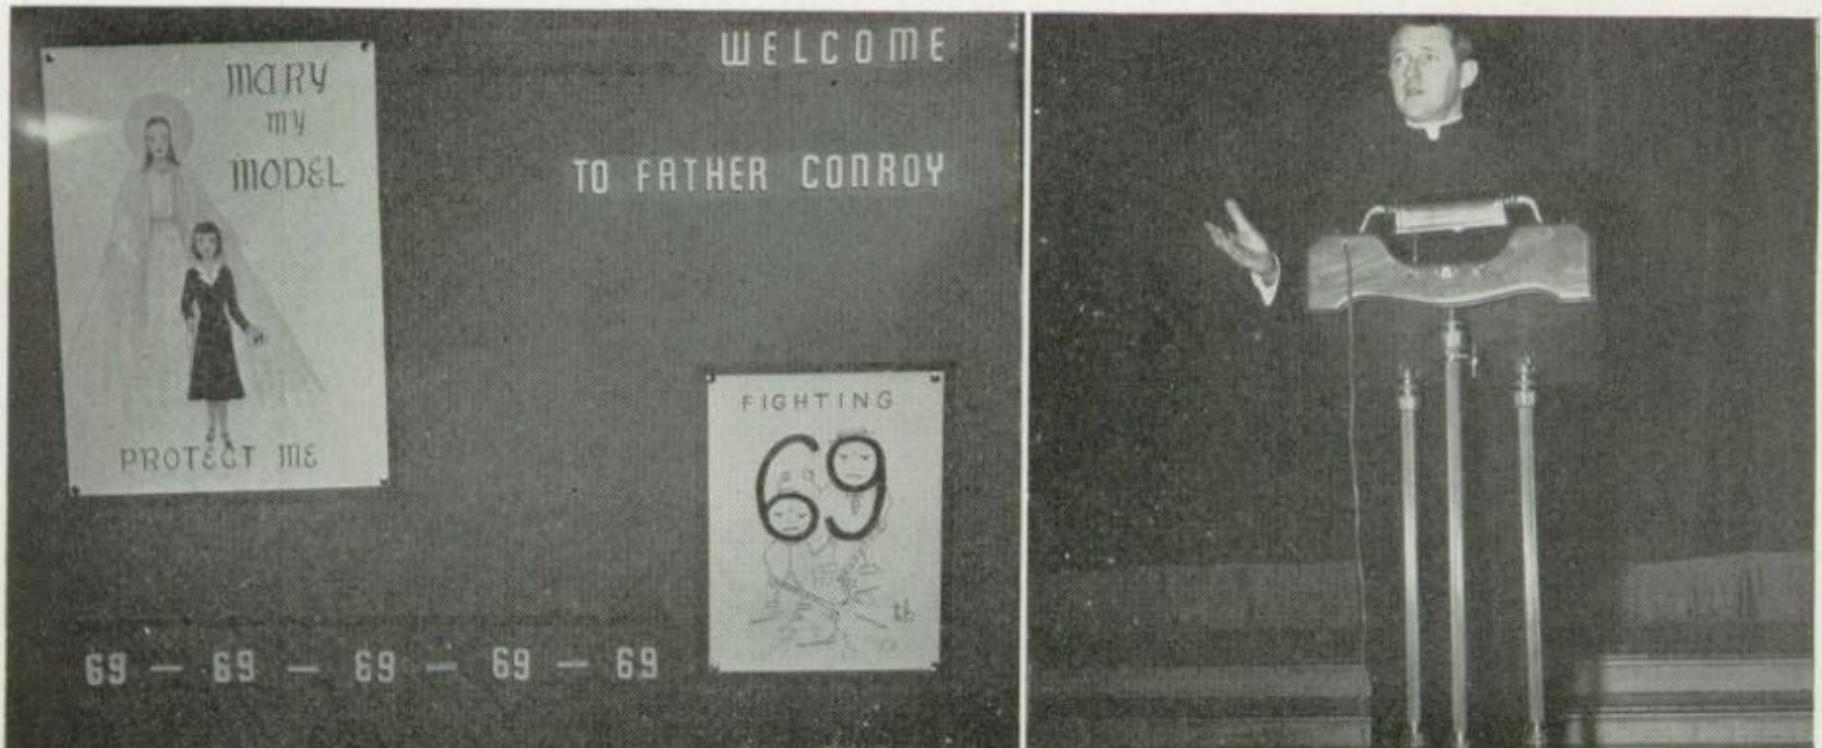

2. A center of interest. Teachers and students obviously eager to study more intensely, the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, the subject of the day.

3. The rule "single file" is forgotten for a moment as Ciscans leave auditorium.

4. Officers of Cisca relax at lunch time. Father Kilgallon, speaker of the day, seems to enjoy the menu.

Below: Do you wish cream? Any request shall be granted by Mercy hostesses.

Above—The Reverend James Conroy, national director of the "Fighting 69th," is welcomed to Mercy. At an assembly Father explains the ideals of the organization and the need for the observance of the sixth and ninth commandments.

Left—Captains Audrey Stech, Peggy Fox, Petronilla Vogt, Mary Ann Karlicek, Margaret Schwartz, and Alice Rust receive award pins from Father.

LEAGUE OF THE SACRED HEART

The Sacred Heart League has for its object greater devotion to the Sacred Heart. Below are the delegates.

MAY TIME BRINGS MARY'S DAY

Two by two they come, at the end of the long procession, the Queen's court of honor: Petronilla Vogt, Margaret Schwartz, Mary McDonnell, Margaret Farnan, Jeanine Benetier, Mary Doyle, Mary Ann Luning, and finally, our May Queen, Alice Rust.

As all raise their voices in final refrain, "O Mary, we crown thee with blossoms today," Alice lays the wreath upon Mary's head.

Thus is commemorated, year after year, heaven's crowning of its Queen upon her arrival in heaven.

LEGION OF MARY

Mercy's first praesidium of the Legion of Mary was organized five years ago. Each of the three praesidia now organized meets weekly. In striving for a greater love of Mary, daily rosary is their special devotion. Chief among their apostolic endeavors are prayer and vocational guidance.

1. Kay Socha, president; Patricia Murphy, vice president; Marlene Neher, secretary; Margaret Zakro, treasurer.

2. Jayne Casey, president; Carole Lemm, vice president; Judy Murphy, secretary; Anne Kiloran, treasurer.

3. Mary Anne Zackie, president; Audrey Bartosz, vice president; Mary Mrowczowski, secretary; Muriel Hewitt, treasurer.

A group gathers in the lobby to beseech
Our Lady for peace.

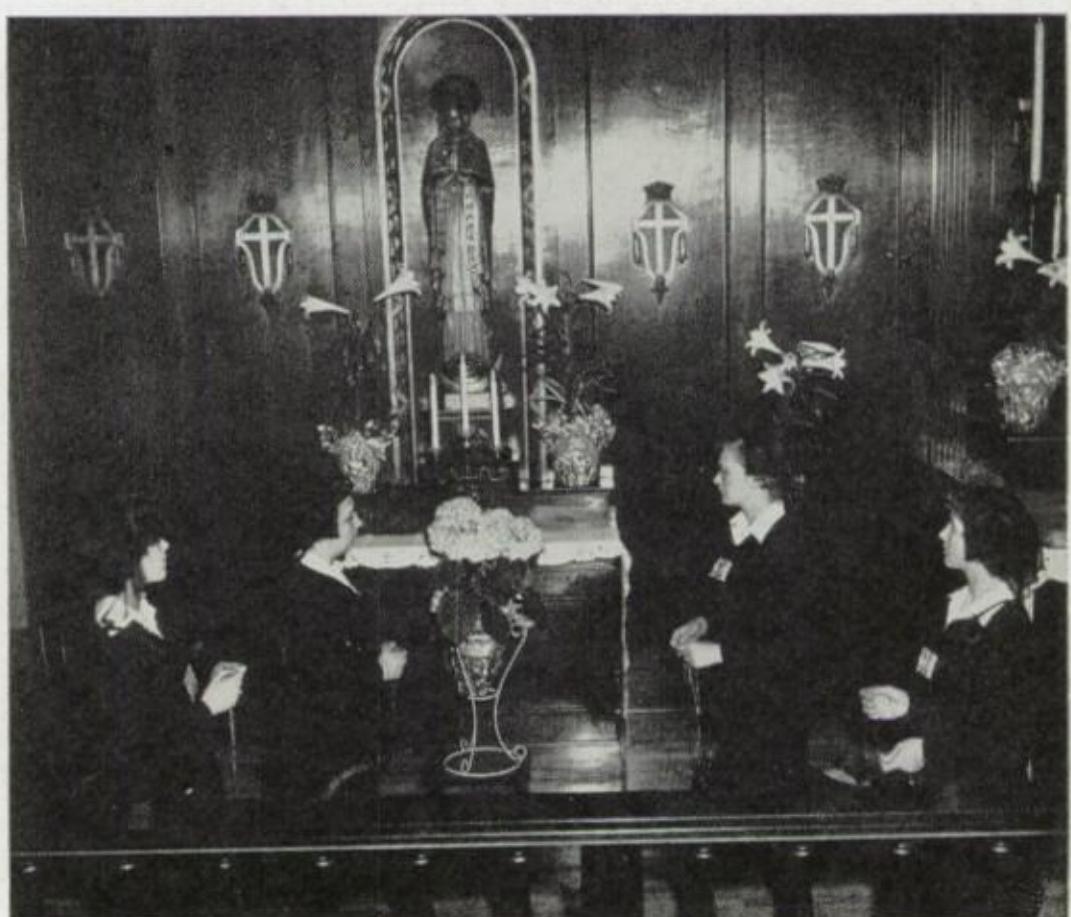

TERTIARIES OF OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL

"Whosoever dies wearing the Scapular shall not suffer eternal fire." Here in Mercy's chapel, a chapter of about eighty members, of the Third Order of Mount Carmel, gather regularly to recite the rosary. The Rule defines it as "an association in the world and retaining their lay estate, share in the religious and apostolic life of the Carmelite Order."

Our Mother of Carmel in her glorious humility stands before us as a beacon on the road to salvation.

Among the art projects exhibited in the lobby by the Junior Red Cross are Mercy's contributions. Jacqueline LaBash holds one of the matching tray mats and menu covers made by the art class for Saint Patrick's day.

Bonnets, sweaters, scarfs, every little thing helps in the campaign to fill the gift box for local needy families. Helping sort the baby clothes, that they made, are Mary Ann Luning and Carolyn McGinnis.

Bows, bows, everywhere, hairbows, shoe bows, lapel bows, — each meant that the owner had made a donation to the Junior Red Cross. This was one day "bows" were plentiful.

SCHOOL CHEST FOR EUROPE

Sylvia Nevens admires the afghan made for the Junior Red Cross by Dorothy O'Brien. Joan Panka and Colette Guthrie pack the student donations into the "School Chest for Europe."

It takes a man! Jo and Jim lift a load—all for the cause!

THE CECELIANS

DIANE McCARTHY

President

Under the direction of Sister Mary Teresa, the Cecelians have worked hard to make this year one of real achievement. The culmination of long hours of practice was the annual concert in which all piano students took part, and the recital of the certificate class.

Seated—Petronilla Vogt, Barbara Curran, Susan Galbreath, Virginia Lange, Elsie Herbold, Dorothy Raymond.

Strands of music float through the corridors when Mr. Gough comes to Mercy on Wednesdays to direct the orchestra. The orchestra is an essential part of Mercy's activities. No stage production is complete without the help of the string section, brass, percussion, and the woodwinds. The result of their constant practice gives musical background for many of Mercy's programs, Christmas program, the Mothers' Foundation Party, and Breakfast, other programs, and general school assemblies, culminating in their own Spring Concert.

Standing—Joan Wood, Patricia Pearson, Danette Cotter. Seated—Audrey Keeler, Maureen McCullough, Veronica Quinn, Nancy Graver, Dorothy Raymond, Maureen Clifford, Carina Liston, Mary Ann Clancy.

Standing — Barbara McCutcheon.

MERCY GLEE CLUB

PEGGY CONLAN

President

Voices tested and accepted, the Glee Club members meet regularly to perfect their programs of modern and classical voice numbers. These they presented on many occasions through the year, when they took the stage in their maroon gowns to assist in various cultural programs, sometimes for school assemblies, sometimes for the public. The expert training the girls received from Sister Rose Marie culminated in the Variety Show in March. Every member of the Glee Club had a part in this much lauded program (see pages 118-121). Finally, the Spring Concert gave testimony to the diligent work and talent of these girls.

The A Cappella choir is made up of girls especially talented. This group has responded to many invitations that come to them because of their reputation. These invitations took them, at Christmas time, to the Bismarck hotel, to Swift's, and to the Museum of Science for carol singing. They have appeared several times on parish and club programs.

MISS MARY SYNON
Dramatic Art Director

The National Thespian Society is an honor society composed of actresses and actors of special talent. To become a Thespian it is necessary to merit a certain number of points by rating appearance in school productions.

Top—Elizabeth Houlihan, Mary Byrnes, Helen Quinn, Sylvia Devine, Gerry Polkowski, Clarette Dax.

Middle—Audrey Stech, Betty Elmore, Margaret Fox, Diane McCarthy, Kathleen Collins, Jeanine Benetier, Maryanne Leoni, Patricia Kemp.

Front—Alice Rust, Helen Murphy, Bernadette O'Brien, Patricia Buckley, Mary Naylor, Barbara Boehm, Charlotte Vitale, Catherine Maysak.

UNDERTOW A tense moment is registered on the faces of the cast in "Undertow," a one act play, with Barbara Boehm, Jeanine Benetier, Catherine Maysak, Jean Barker, Mary Ann Bergfeld, Clarette Dax, Sylvia Devine, Joan Buchanan, and Frances Palmer.

THE MOTHER of GEORGE WASHINGTON

GRANDMA PULLS THE STRINGS

"Grandma Pulls the Strings" for her granddaughter and her favorite "beau." Congratulating each other on their excellent performance are Shirley Puckett, Kay Socha, Mary Collins, Diane McCarthy, Anita Fryer, Pat Sullivan.

Patricia Buckley, Susan Stanley, Danette Cotter, and Therese Corcoran help President Eleanor Lambin pick out patterns for the fashion show costumes. Seated: Patricia Buckley, Eleanor Lambin, president, Danette Cotter, and Therese Corcoran. Standing: Susan Stanley.

*God love you - always!
Sister Mary Ambrosia*

Sister Mary Ambrosia supervises the work done by the sewing class.— Excellence is the result.

Days of mud pies over, these girls of the cooking class seem to be having as much fun making apple pies. The good humor of Mrs. Pawelski, their teacher, is contagious. And you should have seen the pies when they came out of the oven!

A line-up of cooks learning "the way to a man's heart." These girls know that the guarantee of good home-making is a good cook.

LATIN CLUB

"He left school a good Latinist." Macauley could say the same of Marie Kratzer, Kathleen Stodder (seated), Janet O'Neill, or any member of the Latin club. They are the girls who appreciate Latin as a universal language of learning, of purity, and elegance, and are making it a "must" for four years of high school.

FRENCH CLUB

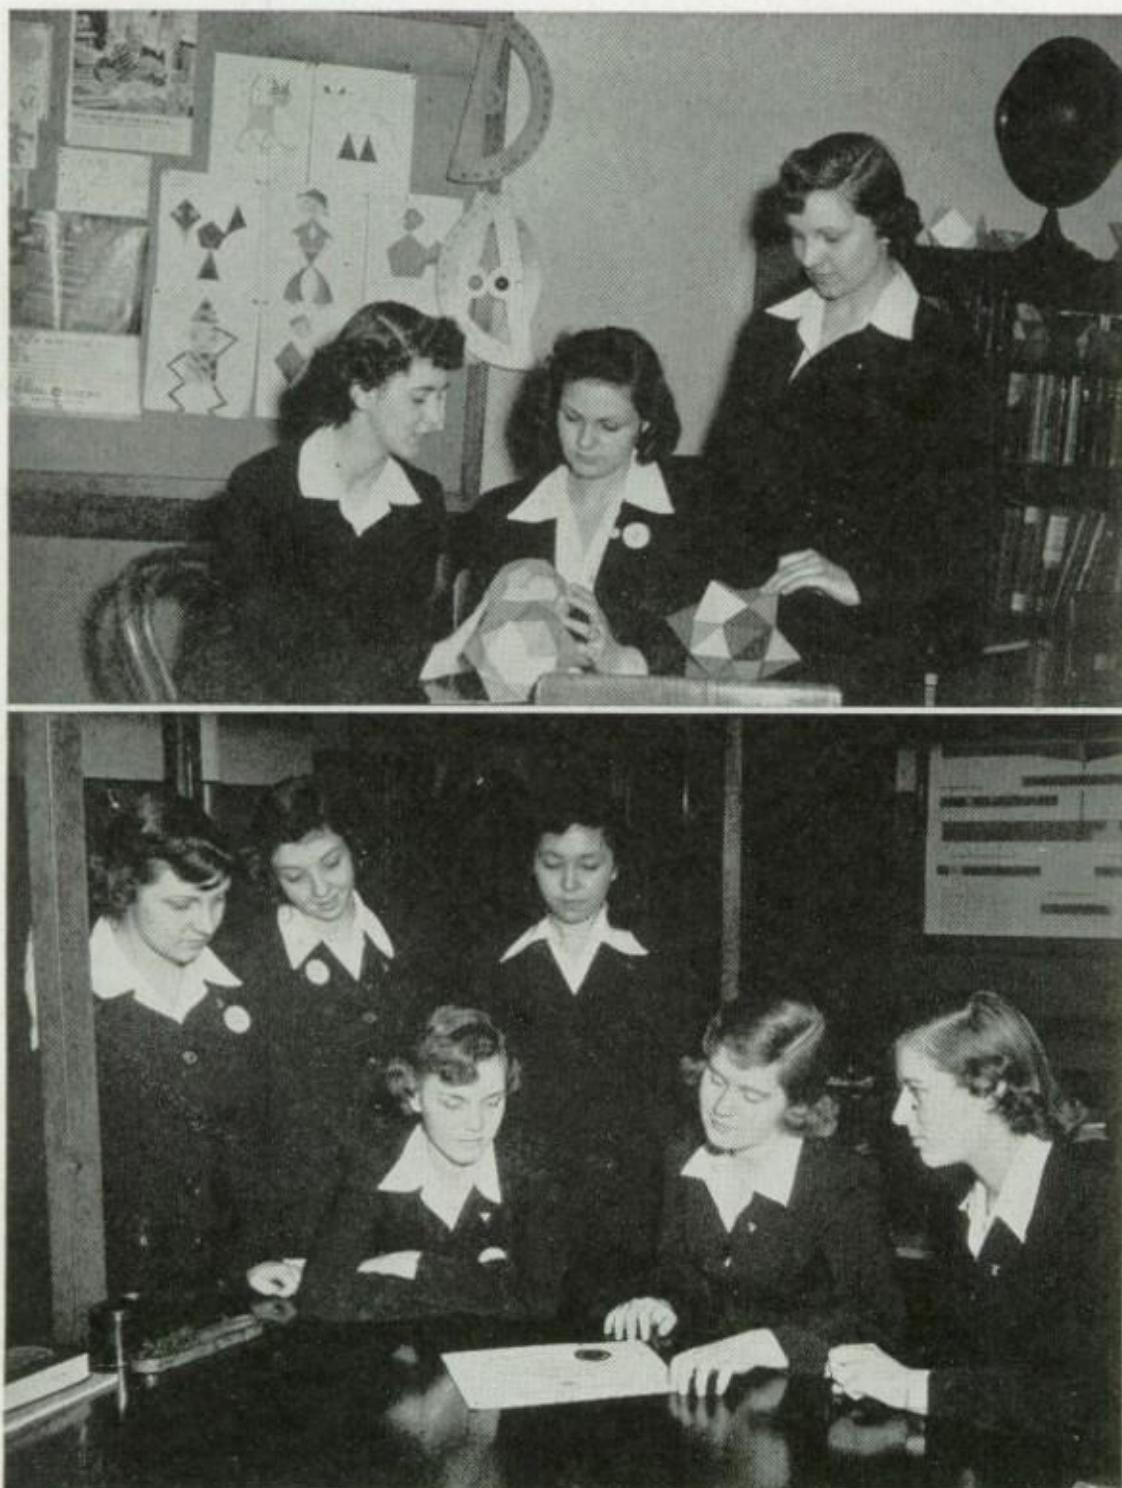

In their pet language, a little chatter and a merry song starts the French club tingling. Standing—Barbara Salamowicz, Joan Nebehay, Isabel Catania, Rose Marie Badali, Susanne Szymanski, Carol Pientka, Judy Sheehan, Bernice Brown, Jacqueline Moynihan, Danuta Bednarski, Mary Ann O'Keeffe. Seated—Christiane Medora, Ramona Da-Corte.

SPANISH CLUB

It looks as though the Spanish club receives cheering news from La Voz, a monthly Spanish paper. Standing—Maryanne Leoni, Helen Keeley, Patricia Sheridan, Dorothy Kloser, Isabelle Mele. Seated—Patricia Fitzgerald, Geraldine Polkowski, Barbara Buckley, Virginia Dominguez, Joan Glynn, Mary Doyle.

MATH CLUB

Ellen, Charlotte, and Kaye examine these geometric figures constructed by math students. The Math club is composed of those who dare to transcend the required subjects to conquer solid geometry, trigonometry, advanced and college algebra.

CY-PHY

Looking over the Cy-Phy charter, issued in 1943, are members of the club,—Caye, Catherine, Carroll, Clarette, Gail, and Gerry. The Cy-Phy is highlighted by lectures, demonstrations, and field trips in the interest of physics.

MAGAZINE DRIVE

Mercy students were given the chance to prove their salesmanship in the magazine drive. The prime purpose of the drive was to encourage the reading of good literature, both Catholic and secular. Secondary purpose was to raise sufficient funds to renovate the convent kitchen. Trophies were given to those ranking highest in returns. Proudly holding their trophies are these girls:

Top picture, standing—Mary Meekins, Lillian Chalifoux, Bernadette Brinlee, Mary Byrnes, Audrey Keeler, Joan Cobert. Front—Ina Mae Stelk, Patricia Buckley, Patricia Moran, Mary Kathryn Brady.

Rover comes to Mercy. He won't be hungry; he came prepared with his can of "Rival." Always willing to oblige he gallantly lends his dog house to the room with the smallest proceeds for each day of the magazine drive. Sadly, Rover, his can of "Rival" and his dog-house, are greeted by Room 216 girls.

BETTY ELMORE

Editor

Our editor in action . . . , with a smile, she proofreads the one and only—DUMMY!

It is accomplished! Here are the girls who have given up all their Saturdays, holidays, and free time to make your yearbook possible. Starting early in the school year and persevering through the months until the last page was "put to bed," they have labored through ideas for pictures, art, editorial copy. They have worked with mounts, boards, and rubber cement, over typewriters, pen and ink, that our 1951 Mercian may meet the standards of former editions.

The Parnassian

Left: 1. The editorial staff of the Parnassian, Mercy's literary magazine, plans a bigger and better 1951 edition. Copy is sorted by Joellyn Warren and Betty Houlihan, while Helen Quinn, and Kathryn Elliott discuss cuts. Mary Alice Naylor, Ellen Murtaugh, and Celeste Devane proof-read.

3. A brilliant advertising campaign is included in the work of Mary Tessmer, Mary Alice Naylor, Jacqueline Murphy, and Geraldine Polkowski, of the art staff, besides sketching new cuts.

FOR

Backing Quill and Scroll are these writers who have passed the test for admission: Maureen Allen, Patricia Conway, Maureen Clifford, Pat Connelley, Celeste Devane, Sylvia Devine, Nancy Fleming, Mary Ellen Holm, Betty Houlihan, Helen Keeley, Mary McDonnell, Jacqueline Murphy, Mary Alice Naylor, Gerry Polkowski, Judy Sheehan, Helen Quinn, Jeanne Scanlon, Betty Smith, Margaret Schwartz, Rosemary Stashak, Patricia Stella, Mary Tessmer, Joellen Warren, Kathryn Elliott.

Leading school journalists unite to encourage student creations of prose and poetry. Various writing talents are revealed in this honorary club. All members of the Mercian, Mercy-Hi Rays and Parnassian staffs are eligible for membership. Quill and Scroll pins are awarded for outstanding work. May we present Mercy's chapter of the Quill and Scroll?

MOTHERS ENJOY A CHRISTMAS PARTY

Right—

Christmas festivities transform Mercy's cafeteria into a decorative and happy room for the Mothers' Christmas party.

Santa promises future "Mercy girl," little Miss Burke, a bundle of wonderful toys on Christmas morning.

Below—

"Oh, Holy Night!" The a cappella choir awakens the spirit of Christmas to Mercy mothers.

OPEN HOUSE NIGHT

Moms and Dads step out for an evening of fun. Candle-light brings an extra glow to this table. Looks like editors got their parents together.

Daughters act as hostesses and serve the cokes . . .
(Serve to whom? Ed.)

MOMS AND DADS INSPECT - THEN FROLIC

Waltz . . . two-step . . . fox trot . . . moms and dads try them all.

Mr. and Mrs. Mele sample the cake . . . good?

Service with a smile is the motto of these daughters.

Dad escorts daughter Carol at the buffet supper.

Time out to relax after an appetizing snack.

Mothers' Club officers and their "beaus" seem happy about the success of their dance.

STAR DUST...Presented by the THEATRE GUILD OF MERCY ALUMNAE

Above—1. "My dear, I'm charmed to meet you, just charmed," croons Mr. Bach in greeting actress Prudence and John to the studio.

2. Phil Ford and Janet Ross interpret a scene from a play together.
3. Claire Carter and John Redman talk over "what's workin'" at the college.

Below—1. Mr. Bach questions the three giddy girls, Miss Freeman, Miss Robinson, and Miss Jones.

2. "Success at last. We broke up her marriage and she won't get her Hollywood contract. Now she can stay here," says Claire to Jerry.

THE CAST

Janet Ross Jean Egan
 Phil Ford Tom Carlin
 Marion Phipps Charlene North
 John Redman Robert Ermatinger
 Cynthia Keene Mary Jane Dilger
 Raimund Brown John Madden

 Jerry Flanagan from Hollywood James Edward
 Arthur Scott Jr., Prudence's fiance John Ertmann

Below—Actress Prudence Mason comes to the Academy of Dramatics and Fine Arts as a visitor and wonders if the school is a Madhouse.

Above—1. "To act you must live the part." The academy students agree, even "Teapot" Stella. 2. Tad puts vim, vigor, and vitality into his interpretation.

HIGHLIGHTS

SURRENDER TO MEMORY

FLAG RAISING

Forever beautiful, forever heart-stirring, the Stars and Stripes is raised over Mercy's campus, arousing a chorus of a thousand voices to the "Star Spangled Banner." School spirit in a "Song of Happiness" followed, as the Mercy banner was proudly raised to its place below "Old Glory."

"WHAT SO PROUDLY WE HAIL"

Right—1. A social circle at the square dance. 2. "Grand right and left . . ."

Kay's just "the roving kind."

Color-rich plaids and prints gather round "Dateless Joe."

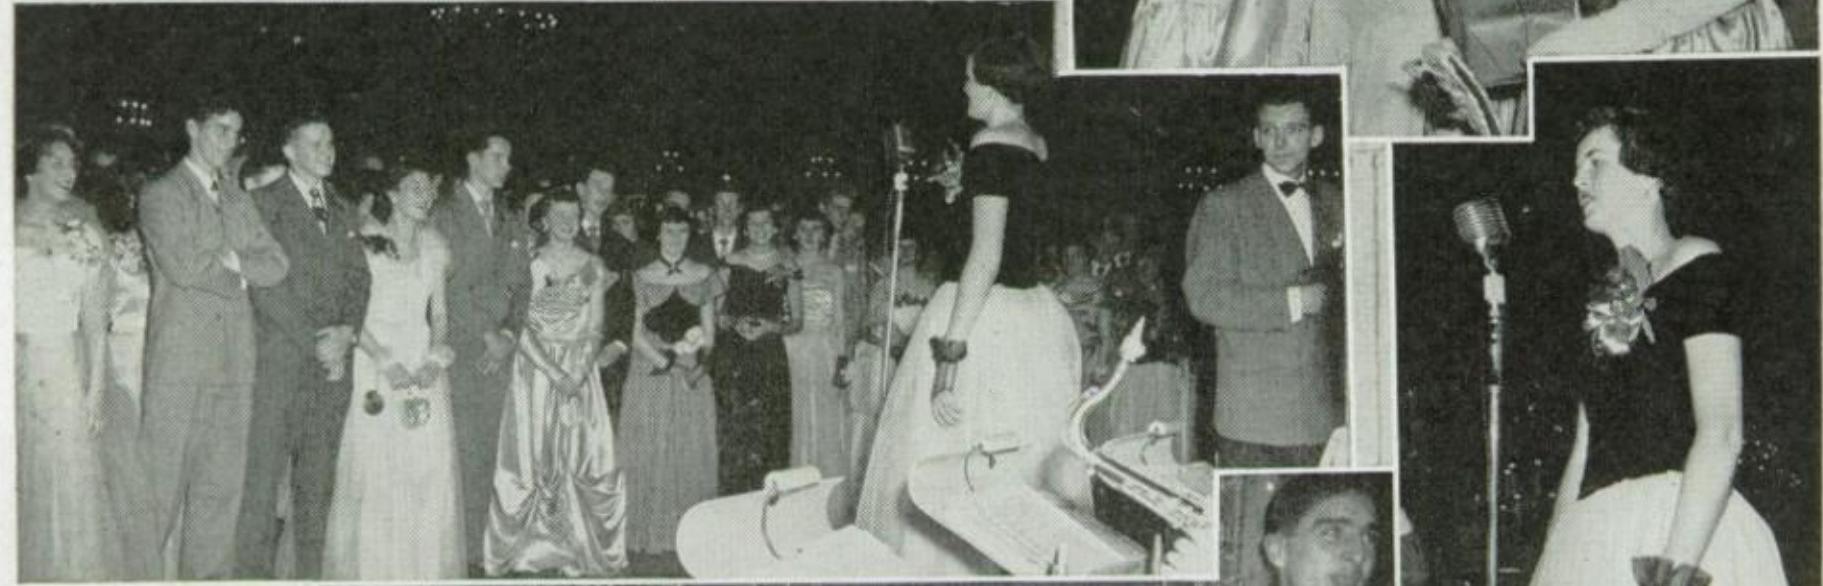

From a cozy corner, chairman Ellen and officers Sylvia, Betty, and Mary Alice, enjoy the results of their efforts.

Who's the attraction? Sister Mary Ambrosia or Roberta?

A reward for the hard-working coke committee.

Moms and Dads step to the sidelines with "Farmer John" to view the Fun.

EVER POPULAR

ABOVE—1. Father Doherty guides grand march. 2. Side by side the couples march. 3. "Good-nite, Sweetheart," brings a wonderful evening to an end.

OPPOSITE PAGE—1. The beginning of the evening—the bid. 2. A knightly bow to an elegant lady. 3. The chaperones smile for the photographer. 4. "Oooh, how beautiful! 5. President Peg becomes professional. 6. A trio of Pepsodent smiles. 7. A pretty girl, a pretty melody.

Below

"O COME AND ADORE"

Mercy Glee Club.

Right—

1. Moms and Dads give out bids.
2. Lights, music, decorations, and fun!
3. Betty waits for Jim to sign her bid.
4. & 5. Gym demonstrations or is it the Sport Dance?

Left—

The Grand March comes to an end after a promenade through the balcony.

Dolores Jordan being crowned by her runner-up Barbara Curran.

A SPORTING GOOD TIME AT THE SPORT DANCE

Right—

Finale! The Queen is named and crowned. Now for the "good-night" waltz and, bye-and-bye—home!

THE VARIETY SHOW

Presented by the MERCY GLEE CLUB

Left: Irene DeMaso performs to "Anchors Aweigh." Below: 1. Carol Pientka and Pat Collins do a duet ballet to the strains of "Toy Flutes." 2. Shades of the Roaring '20's—the Charleston. 3. "Mammie! I'm a comin'!"

Opposite page: 1. Margie Burns, the little Irish maiden, sings "In an Irish Garden." 2. Pat Thein in "Out of My Dreams" from "Oklahoma." 3. "Al Johnson" alias Barb Curran, gives a preview of her number. 4. A cappella girls surround Pat as she renders a beautiful solo. 5. All dressed up for the April Showers number.

Below—Tom Collins and Gerry Walsh enchantingly sing “Sweethearts” from the stage play of the same name, and “Be My Love” from “The Toast of New Orleans.”

THE VARIETY SHOW

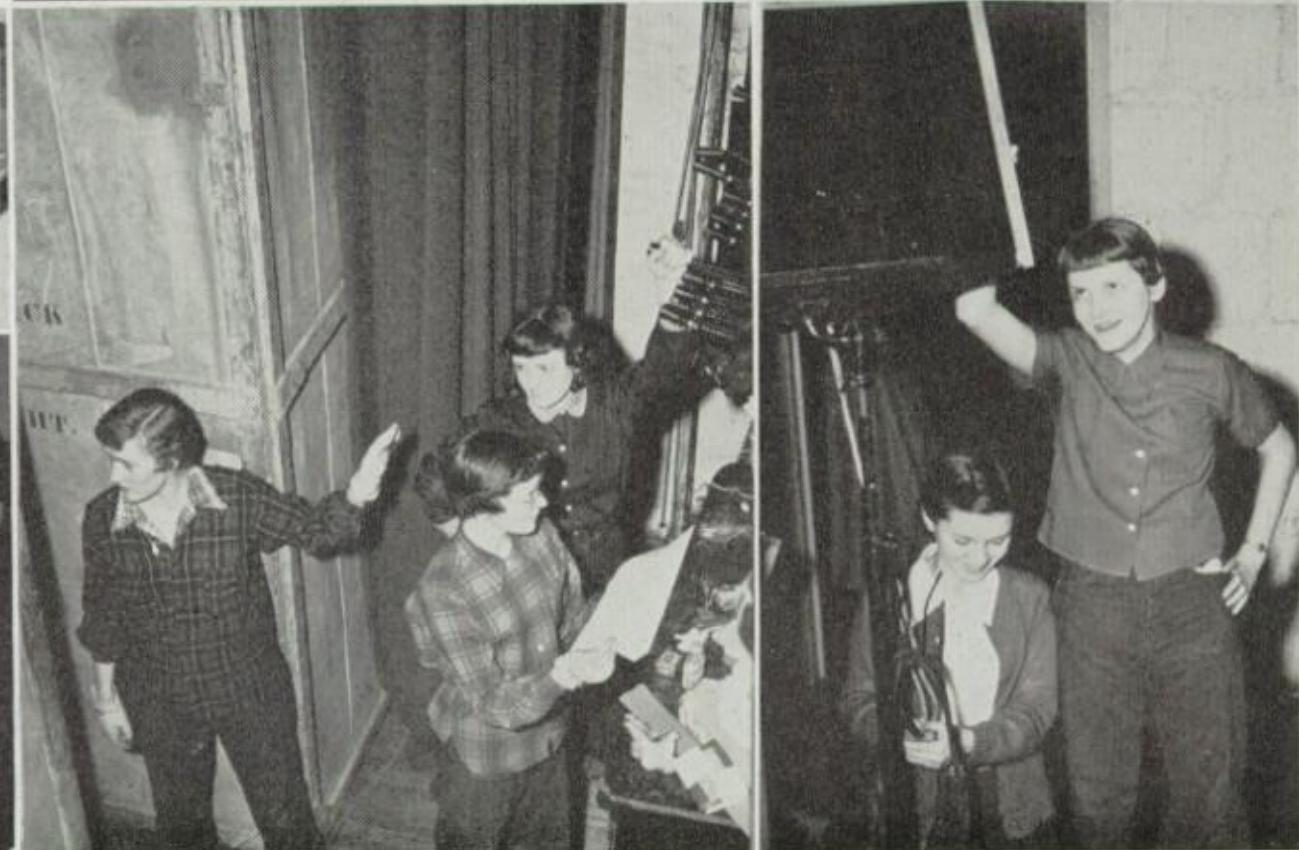

Above—The finale included the entire Glee club singing “Song of the Angels” and “Ave Maria.”

Scenes from Oklahoma

2. “Where the winds come sweeping down the plains.”
3. “A Surrey with the Fringe on Top.” 4. What happened to the horse—tired?

Right—A peek back stage reveals everyone working feverishly to be ready on time.

DAD DATES

THE OTHER WOMAN

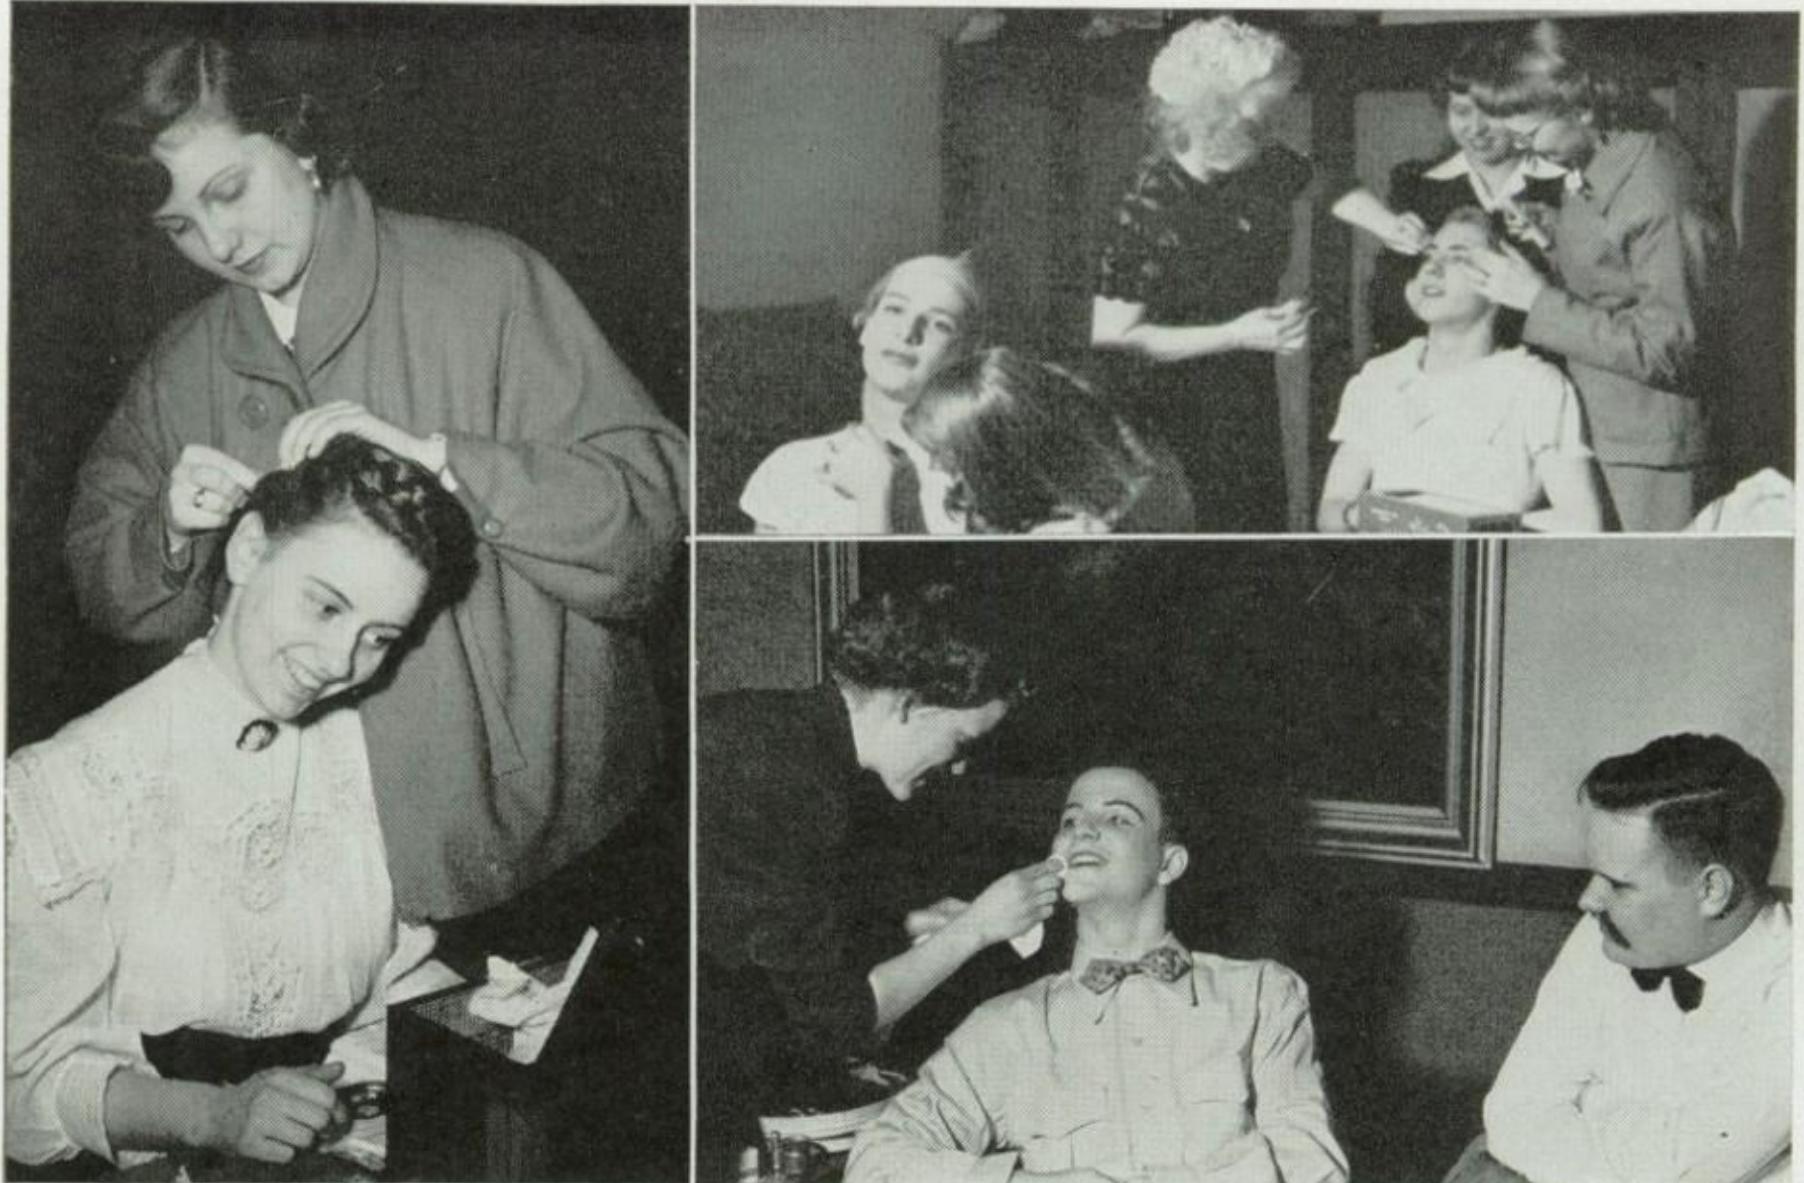

"My Heart Belongs to Daddy." Certainly that was proved by these Mercy girls the night of the second Dad-Daughter Dance.

DAD-DAUGHTER DANCE

Opposite page: 1. Catherine and Patricia Naylor share their best beau. 2. From the Dominguez and Felip families. 3. Sister Mary Evarista gets around. 4. A long table of happy couples. 5. Caught in action. 6. Skip it!

Right: 1. Sue and Dolores watch with their best beaus. 2. Not one, but two! Mr. Schwartz approves wholeheartedly his double-date. 3. Triple treat! Not one, not two, but three Reamer's for the price of one date. Below: Frances and her Dad get stepping.

I REMEMBER MAMA

Presented by the SENIOR CLASS

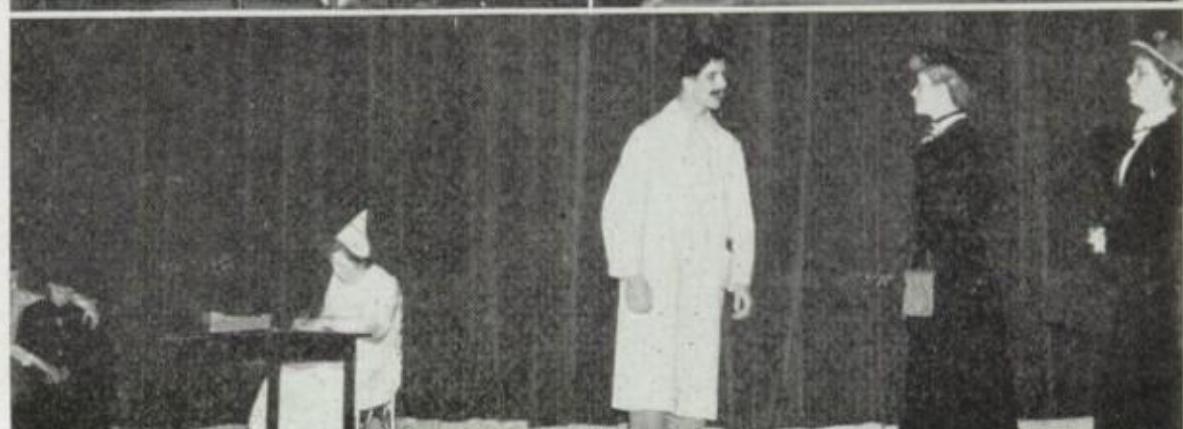

Above 1. "Just one more pin here!" "Mama" Catherine Maysak helps another "Mama," Mary Jo Collins, with make-up. 2. Getting ready to meet their public, Mercy "Max Factors" make Bernie Kager and Don Busam presentable. Gerry Polkowski, Miss Synon, Gerry Thien and Frances Palmer. 3. "Hold still for one minute more." Pat Cameron adds finishing touches to Dick Snyder as Ray Sabyra looks on.

Below: Elizabeth, in the arms of Dagmar, steals the show.

THE CAST

Mama	Catherine Maysak, Mary Jo Collins
Katrin	Mary Alice Naylor, Sylvia Devine
Christine	Diane McCarthy, Bernadette O'Brien
Dagmar	Loretta Kane, Maureen O'Neil

Aunt Sigrid.....	Clurette Dax, Marjorie Murphy
Nurses	Charlotte Vitale, Carol Mussey, Betty Houlihan, Maureen Quinn
Scrubwoman	Betty Elmore

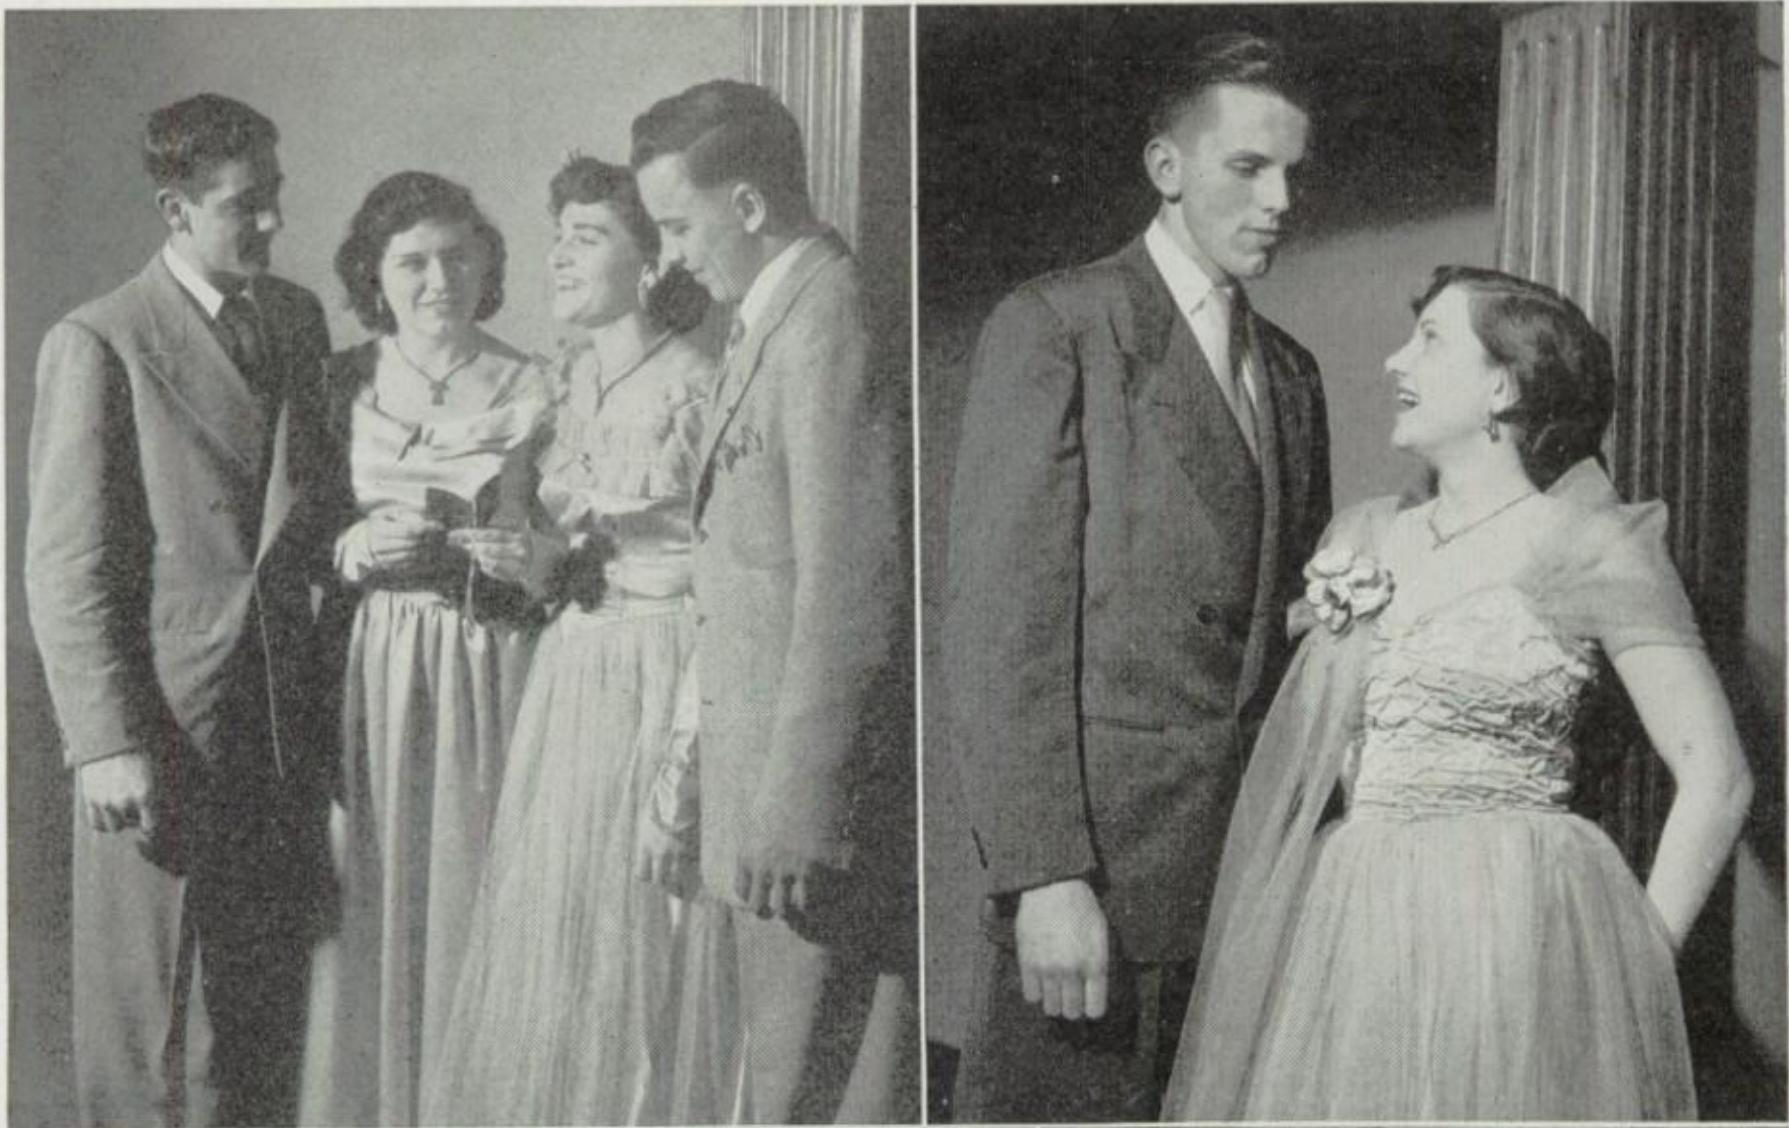

1. "Just the slight matter of a dowery." Mr. Thorkelson speaks to Uncle Chris. 2. "Is there enough to send Nels to high school?" 3. "This is my darling Elizabeth," Dagmar tells Mama and Papa. 4. Uncle Chris argues with doctor as Mama and Christine look on. 5. Inspiration this little scrubwoman is. 6. "Have a cup of coffee," Mama invites sisters Jenny and Sigrid. 7. Uncle Chris disturbs the quiet hospital with his "get out."

THE PROM

Above: 1. Powder puff and lipstick are put to use. Audrey and Joan add the last touch. 2. On their way! Jackie and Jerry pause, pleased with each other. 3. "So glad you could come!" President Audrey greets each couple. 4. Kenny is ready to start. Joan hasn't decided. 5. Slowly dancing away the hours.

Opposite: 1. Happy foursome! "How about signing my bid?" says Pat. 2. "Am I wearing you out?" 3. "There's the music. Let's get stepping." 4. Home again with tired feet but endless memories.

They Will Remember — One Night Of Enchantment

WE ARE GRATEFUL

The Mercian staff extends a heartfelt "Thank You" to all its patrons, advertisers, students, and friends who worked together to finance this MERCIAN of 1951.

Geraldine Walsh, who earned the title MISS MERCIAN for being the highest salesman, is being crowned by business manager, Betty Koch. Her court is made up of Diane McCarthy, Cloe Ganz, Marie McFadden, and Elaine Reis, MISS MERCIAN'S highest competitors.

The Fox College graduate can save more the first year after she graduates from Fox College than the average girl without specialist's training can save in 5 years. More important—the Fox College graduate is working for a top executive, the man who has the power of promotion—the power of granting raises, so the Fox College graduate gets more rapid and more frequent promotions and raises. You, too, can triple your net salary!

The advertisement features a black and white photograph of a tall, dark-colored funeral home building with a prominent gabled roof and a small cupola. In front of the building is a large, dark, rectangular sign with the words "DONNELLAN FUNERAL HOME" in white, serif capital letters. To the right of the building, there is a vertical column of text. At the top of this column is the slogan "Every consideration is yours...". Below this, four bullet points describe the service: "Service—personal and distinctive.", "Appointments—a compliment to your good taste.", and "Prices—within the budget of every family.". At the very bottom of the ad, the address "JEFFERY BOULEVARD AT 77TH ST." and the phone number "SOUTH SHORE 8-8822" are printed.

Plastic Surgeon's Astounding Discovery COUNTERACTS UGLY SKIN SIMPLE HOME TREATMENT BEAUTIFIES FACE and NECK BEYOND FONDEST DREAMS

If you are worried because aging lines are showing up around your eyes and mouth and forehead . . . if your skin looks coarse, muddy and sagging . . . if you are bothered with pimples, blackheads, enlarged pores . . . here may be the most wonderful news you have ever read.

At last, after years of research, testing and experimentation among patients, a prominent Chicago plastic surgeon has discovered a truly sensational new beauty treatment that so refines the skin on face and neck, it actually becomes younger!

Sensational New Liquid Mask Beautifies Skin in One Easy Application

This startling new discovery, called Talli Liquid Mask, goes on like a creamy oil and comes off as a complete mask! It doesn't draw the skin or pull muscles—can't harden on the face like ordinary masks. This amazing new liquid mask is utterly different...a rich, beauty-restoring liquid containing 9 secret ingredients, proved beneficial to the skin. You feel its magic work the instant you apply it . . . cooling your skin with delicious tingling sensation of chilled mint. You see the difference in your skin, the moment you remove the mask: radiant, tender, soft and so wonderfully smooth, so deeply refreshed. You can even see the removed impurities from your skin clinging to the inside of the mask! That's because Talli Liquid Mask penetrates the deepest derma layer of your skin . . . drawing out embedded impurities as it softens, oils and refines your skin to radiantly youthful beauty.

Now Available for Home Use

New Talli Liquid Mask until now a closely guarded doctor's formula, is at last available for easy home use. To try it, simply send us your name and address. On arrival, pay the postman only $3.00 plus C.O.D. postage for Complete Two Weeks Supply on guarantee you must see a marked improvement in your skin, or your entire money refunded. Cash orders sent postage paid. Today, right now, send your name to
